

RESEARCH SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL SCIENCES & ENGINEERING

2002 ANNUAL REPORT

ANU

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Mission Statement

- to undertake research and research training in selected areas of physics and engineering at the highest international levels
- to provide research facilities unique in Australia and of international importance
- to interact and cooperate with other Australian universities in our areas of expertise through joint research programs, providing access to our major facilities, providing visiting fellowships, specialist lecture courses and science schools
- to encourage technology transfer to Australian industry