

Weekly Bulletin

Research School of Physics and Engineering

Volume 35 Number 12
3 - 9 April 2009

SCHOOL COLLOQUIUM

Tuesday 7 April 2009

4.00pm

“Frequency Comparisons of Mercury and Aluminium Ions to 17 Decimal Places”

by Professor Wayne Itano

Time and Frequency Division, National Institute of Standards & Technology, Boulder, CO 80305

Leonard Huxley Lecture Theatre

Drinks and Light Refreshments will be provided in the RSPSE Link Tea Room after the Colloquium

ALL WELCOME

VOTE IN RESEARCH STUDENT COMPETITIONS

A week of activities is taking place for ANU research students from 20 - 24 April 2009 (<http://researchstudents.anu.edu.au/researchfest/>).

Associated with this are various competitions including: “Best Research Note” and “Best Poster”. Information on these is available on the web and all members of ANU staff can vote using University IDs. So log on, click on ‘Be a winner’, read the Notes or Posters and cast your vote.

STAFF MOVEMENTS

Dr Casten Makochekanwa, CAMS, will present an invited talk on “Positron Scattering from Rare Gases and Biologically Relevant Molecules”, at a joint Tokyo University of Science and Sophia University Seminar at the Tokyo University of Science, 3 April 2009.

CAMS VISITORS

Dr Leigh Hargreaves, University of Adelaide, is undertaking collaborative research with the CAMS team from 30 March -10 April 2009 and will be located in Room C5.03 during his stay.

BUSINESS OFFICE NEWS

Please note the following Finance/Research Admin staff absences:

Martina Landsmann is currently on leave returning Wednesday 15 April. Any matters normally directed to Martina on research management should be forwarded to Wendy Butler (x55187).

Queries pertaining to publications and annual report should be directed to Deborah Bordeau (x52403).

Mark Harris (Purchasing & Stores Manager, Business Office) is currently on leave, returning Tuesday 14 April. During his absence, please forward any urgent purchasing-related inquiries to Dylan Daniel-Marsh (x54163).

Andrew James (Finance Manager) will be on leave from Monday 6 April returning on Tuesday 28 April. Please direct relevant queries to Wendy Butler in the first instance.