

Audrey Zibelman

Audry Zibelman has been the Chief Executive Officer of Australian Energy Market Operator since 20 March 2017. She studied at Pennsylvania State University and Hamline University School of Law.

She currently serves on numerous industry related non-for-profit boards including the CSIRO Energy Advisory Committee and the Melbourne Energy Institute.

Audrey is an expert in energy policy, markets and Smart Grid innovation. She has extensive experience in the public, private and non-for profit electricity sectors in the united states. She has worked in a number of companies including Viridity Energy, PJM and Xcel energy.

