FAREWELL

Electronic Materials Engineering

Please farewell and thank Helen Shelper who has been filling in as Departmental Administrator.

INFLUENZA VACCINATIONS

Can I encourage School staff and students to access the ANU Health Services free Influenza vaccinations. Some spaces are still available on 1st and 9th May.

ANU is pleased to provide free flu vaccinations to staff for 2012.

To make your online booking go to:

www.gobookings.com.au/Australian_National_University

To receive your vaccination you must present your ID Card to identify yourself as an ANU staff member. Please show your Medicare card at the time of your vaccination as this will save ANU a $5 administration fee for your vaccination.

The incoming Director of the Research School of Physics and Engineering, Professor Stephen Buckman, warmly invites you and your partner to farewell outgoing Director, Professor Jim Williams AM, at the launch of new School development initiatives.

The evening will also include the launch of the Ben Williams Endowment Fund, established by Professor Williams and his family. The fund is intended to assist students enrolled in the School experiencing difficult circumstances, such as mental illness, disability, extended sickness, family or financial hardship, to continue and complete their studies.

The reception will be hosted at the ANU Classics Museum. Guides will be stationed throughout the museum from 5.30pm to provide short presentations and answer your questions.
